Violently Insane.

Bennetstown, Ky., May 24.—Miss Margaret Brame, a highly esteemed lady of this place, became violently insane and was taken to Hopkinsville to-day, where she was sent to the asylum. She is 65 years old and has been in bad health for some time.

Secured a Better Position.

Capt. J. W. Thomas, who has been in the employ of the O. V. R. Co. for several years as conductor, resigned his place last week, having secured the position of yard master of the Ohio River Railroad at Wheeling, W. Va.

Last Day For Filing Suits.

Next Friday is the last day for filing suits and executing summonses for the June term of Circuit Court, which begins in this city June 7. The jury list will also be opened by the Circuit Clerk and the names of the jurors drawn will be given to the Sheriff.

Convention of Universalists.

The Annual State Convention of Universalists meets at Good Hope church, near Manumington, next Friday and will be in session over Sunday. It is expected that there will be a very large attendance on the occasion.

The Pembroke Revival.

The revival at Pembroke is still in progress and will probably continue throughout this week. There is much interest in the meeting and it is estimated that 1,000 people attended each of the three services Sunday. There have been a number of conversions already and the prospects are that there will be many more before this meeting closes.

A Bright Treatise Girl.

Hamilton Female College at Lexington will this week give diplomas to a class of seventeen young ladies. Miss Nannie Grady, of Trenton, Ky., receives the first honors and Miss Edna White, of Springfield, Tenn., the second. Other Western Kentucky girls in the list are Miss Alma May Yeiser, Paducah, and Miss Annie Laura Fogle, Hartford.

Dry Land Fishermen.

Farmers in the low lands of South Christian, known as "Flat Lick," report that fish are being plowed up in their bottom lands in large quantities. When that section was overflowed by the heavy rains of April the fish floated out of the various streams and failed to return to the running water. Pools of water were left over the fields and as these are drained with plows large perch and other varieties of the fanny tribe are easily captured.

Kentucky Day at Nashville.

Yesterday was Kentucky Day at the Centennial.

After the dedication of the Kentucky building the Louisville Legion gave a dress parade. Gov. Bradley and his staff were present, and a large number of prominent Kentuckians were on hand. The musical and oratorical exercises consisted of a solo by Miss Vandell, and a formal address by Hon. E. McDermott, of Louisville. Responses were made by Speaker Thompson, Mr. M. T. Bryan and Hon. Tully Brown.

Electric Light Plant Sold.

The Hopkinsville Water, Light and Power Company, which is the name under which the electric light company does business, has sold its plant to Messrs. John Leslie and F. W. Gilbert, practical electricians from Chicago. They arrived last week and took possession of the plant. Mr. Leslie, who is a married man, brought his family with him and will occupy one of the Forbes cottages on Clay street. Mr. Gilbert is boarding at Hotel Latham. The new owners of the plant will retain the services of Mr. Geo. E. Gary as Secretary and Treasurer. Important improvements are contemplated.

New Pension Board.

Dr. W. B. Blakey, J. A. Southall and J. B. Jackson, the Democratic pension examiners for this county, have been removed and a Republican board appointed in their places. The new board is composed of Dr. S. H. Williams, of Crofton; Dr. F. E. Grace, of Haley's Mills, and Dr. J. C. Lyte, colored, of Hopkinsville. The whole county has been divided into four districts and each district has been assigned a Republican doctor to make a paritau board. Besides those appointed we know of only two other Republican physicians in the county. Dr. Sargent, nominee for representative, and Dr. Leverett, colored, who recently came here from Louisville.

The exhibition drill at the Athletic Park Thursday afternoon was a most successful feature, attended by a large number of spectators.

That night the Louisville Commandery received the people of Hopkinsville and their entertainment was a brilliant conclusion to a week of pleasant events. During the evening Miss Hettie Major, daughter of Mr. Tom P. Major, was elected "Daughter of the Commandery" and acknowledged the honor in a graceful little speech.

The reception was more brilliant in some respects than the De Molay reception the night before. The attendance was better, the receiving committee larger and the music by a full band. The decorations were more elaborate and the dancing continued till a later hour. The De Molays returned the courtesy of the night before by calling in a body and paying their respects.

On Friday morning the break up occurred. The De Molays and grand officers left at eight o'clock from the L. & N. depot and the Louisvilles departed half an hour later from the O. V.

Large crowds accompanied both commanderies to their trains and some speechmaking was indulged in, some handshaking and the trains pulled out amid the cheers of both the departing visitors and their friends behind. The Louisville people of both commanderies were gentlemen and ladies in every sense of the word. Hopkinsville has never been called upon to entertain a more agreeable body of visitors. The good opinion formed of the guests by the people of Hopkinsville was reciprocated by the visitors.

Before leaving the hotel the ladies of De Molay gave a checkers for Hotel Latham. Commandery No. 1 formed their ladies in line in front of the hotel counter, the Sir Knights in full dress, just to the rear. Words of thanks were expressed personally by Mrs. Warner to Mr. W. A. Wilgus, the director in charge of the hotel, for the courtesies extended. Dr. Griffiths and Capt. John H. Leathers spoke in behalf of the Commandery, both paying high compliments to the hotel. These speeches were responded to by Mr. Wilgus and the general wind-up was a very happy event.

"Fancy Fowls."

The above title is the name of a new first class poultry paper to be started and issued from the Kentucky office about the 8th or 10th of June. It will be printed in the very best style, with new material and on book paper and will have twenty pages 9x12 inches. There is no poultry paper of established reputation in Kentucky of the class Fancy Fowls will strive to enter, and there are but few of any class in the State. Every effort will be made to make it strictly a first class journal for the promotion of the industry whose organ it will try to be in Kentucky and adjoining States. The subscription price will be only 25 cents a year and we hope to have every person who is interested in poultry added to its list of subscribers. Send in your subscriptions promptly and get the first issue, which will appear in about two weeks. Address Fancy Fowls Co., 212 South Main street, Hopkinsville, Ky. No subscriptions taken except for the cash in advance.

Bethel Female College Commencement.

The Commencement exercises of Bethel Female College will begin on May 31 and last until June 3. They will be held in the College Chapel at 8 o'clock each evening. On Monday evening there will be a concert with reading and music on the piano and violin. Tuesday evening the baccalaureate services will be delivered by Dr. Carter Helm Jones, of Louisville.

Wednesday evening June 2, the regular graduating exercises will be held, consisting of an address to the graduates and the delivery of diplomas by the President, Rev. Edmund Harrison.

Miss Josephine Hatcher.
Miss Sara Elizabeth Jackson.
Miss Eula Margaret Lamm.
Miss Georgia E. Mitchell.
Miss Evelina Louise Nash.
Miss Jeannette R. Shanklin.
Miss Susie Evelyn White.

Took Poisons Through Mistake.

Gracey, Ky., May 24.—Dr. B. W. Cowherd, the druggist at this place, took a large dose of strychnine by mistake last night, thinking it was anti-knock. He very soon realized his mistake and Dr. Backus and Bell were sent for and worked nearly all night with him. He is alive this morning and the doctors think he will recover, though he had a very close call.

LEGISLATURE QUITS.

KENTUCKY'S FIRST AND LAST REPUBLICAN LEGISLATURE.

Democrats Defeat The Fusion Bill—Twenty-eight Bills Become Laws—List of the New Acts.

Frankfort, Ky., May 21.—The extra session of the Legislature adjourned sine die at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The filibustering in the Senate continued until the end, but ten more enrolled bills were reported and sent to the Governor, who signed four of them, including the M. V. Violence Bill. He vetoed the bill grading license fees in Louisville because it did not come under his call.

Twenty-nine bills were passed by both houses and reached the Governor, all of which will become laws except the one voted to-day. These bills come under fifteen of the subjects mentioned in the call, leaving twenty-seven subjects untouched.

When Lieut. Gov. Worthington adjourned the Senate he said: "And may the Lord have mercy upon your souls."

The extra session cost the State $50,000, the expenses averaging $1,000 a day.

Following is the title or substance of every bill that received the assent of a law either by approval of the Governor or without his signature:

Senate bill providing the manner in which constitutional amendments shall be voted upon by the people. Contains an emergency clause. Approved May 12, 1897.

Senate bill providing that in counties containing cities of the first and second class maintaining a system of public schools separate and distinct from the common schools of the county, the County Superintendent shall reside in the portion of the county outside of such a city, or cities, and be elected by the qualified voters of said county residing outside of such city or cities. Approved May 13, 1897.

House bill to prevent the spreading of the disease called glanders. Contains an emergency clause. Approved April 29, 1897.

House bill transferring Pineville, Bell county, from the list of towns of the fourth class to the fifth class. Sent to the Governor April 29, 1897. Became a law without his approval.

House bill empowering the seven Judges of the Court of Appeals, each to employ clerical assistance for two years at an aggregate salary of $6,000 per annum. Received by the Governor April 29, 1897. Became a law without his approval.

House bill changing the time of holding court in Anderson county. Approved May 4, 1897.

Senate bill authorizing the formation in counties of less than 100,000 inhabitants of corporations authorized to do both a trust and banking business. Approved May 4, 1897.

Senate bill providing for payment of the expenses of the committee that attended the burial of Hon. Ross Weisenburger. Approved May 12, 1897.

House bill reducing from $2 to $1.50 sheriffs' fees for the sales of property on which taxes are not paid, and providing that before a sale of real estate for taxes or the collection of sheriffs' fees said sheriffs shall make affidavit that the delinquent had no personal estate out of which tax could be collected. Approved May 12, 1897.

House bill for the payment of Lewis D. Smith, keeper of the back capital. Approved May 4, 1897.

House bill to legalize the borrowing of money by the insane asylums and other State charitable institutions. Approved May 4, 1897.

Senate bill changing the time of holding Circuit Court in Mercer, Boyd, Lincoln and Garrard counties. Approved May 12, 1897.

House bill providing for the labeling of cars or barges containing coal or coke mined or manufactured by convicts and brought into this State for sale. Approved May 4, 1897.

House bill to protect the freedom of speech in this state and prevent the egging of public speakers. Approved April 16, 1897.

House bill increasing the rate of State taxation from 42½ cents for a period of three years, after which time it shall be 47½ to 51½. Contains an emergency clause. Approved May 8, 1897.

House bill authorizing the State to issue $500,000 worth of bonds to refund certain indebtedness of the State. Contains an emergency clause. Approved May 10, 1897.

House bill authorizing the Governor of Jefferson county (excluding a portion of the first class) to employ a stenographer at a salary of $50 per month. Contains an emergency clause. Approved April 16, 1897.

House bill making an annual appropriation of $500 to be used for the purpose of preventing the spreading of the San Jose scale in this Commonwealth. Contains an emergency clause. Approved May 10, 1897.

MIND YOUR OWN BUSINESS.

Two Good Resolutions to Make and Stick To.

When you begin life, make two resolutions, and stick to them.

First, to mind your own business.

Second, to let the business of other people alone.

These people who are always meddling with the affairs of others are a nuisance, and ought to be legally "abated" like any other nuisance.

We would as lief live near a soap-factory establishment, or a petroleum refinery, as near one of them.

If you belong to that class of nuisances, we pity you, for your life is an uneasy and unsatisfactory one. You can never be happy, because it is utterly impossible that you can ever find out anything which is going on in your vicinity.

What is it to you if your neighbor does bring home a brown-paper package and a covered basket? You will live just as long if you should never know what they contain. It is none of your business.

Suppose Mrs. B— has a new bonnet? How does it concern you?

Your life, liberty, and sacred honor are in no way imperiled by the fact. Suppose she did pay ten dollars for it? The money does not come out of your purse, and consequently it is none of your business.

If the minister does call on Ann Eliza Smith twice a week, why exercise your brain over it? What if he is courting her? Let him court away. Suppose she has an awful temper, and powders her face, as you say she does? Her temper will not trouble you; and as for the powder—why, just you find us a woman who doesn't powder!

Don't be forever poking your nose into other people's business! If one young lady "cuts out" another young lady, it is nothing to you. That is for the young ladies themselves to settle.

If neighbor Small keeps two cats, and feeds them on beefsteak, don't let it harrow your feelings. That is Small's affair, not yours. If Mrs. Small throws her dishwater out of the front door, let her do it, and enjoy it; it doesn't concern you.

Don't sit up nights to see how long there is a light in Miss Bell's parlor, when the young lawyer is there. If Miss Bell thinks him worth the oil burned, it is nothing to you. He isn't making love to you or any of your folks.

What if they do have three pairs of stockings apiece every week over at Squire Hill's? Haven't they a right to? As long as you don't do the washing, it need not trouble you at all.

And if Hill's rats are three inches longer than common, don't excite yourself about it. If you hadn't been watching the clothesline you never would have known anything about it, and "where ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise."

Mind your own business thoroughly, and you will find little leisure to attend to the affairs of others.—Kate Thorn, in N. Y. Weekly.

America has 13,750 four mills.

Illinois convicts no law, or make cigars.

St. Paul coopers struck for an advance.

In Japan 35,000,000 wear wooden shoes.

Don't plasterers struck for an advance.

Chicago paint finishers struck against a cut.

South-Bud (Ind.) stone cutters won strike.

Some shavers have been on strike thirty-one weeks.

Myron H. McCall has been appointed governor of Arizona.

Henderson's tax rate is only $1.15 on the $100. It was $1.17 last year.

In fifteen months the Standard Oil Company has paid its owners $40,000,000.

Chicago tanners have been on strike nine weeks, and many of the 1500 are destitute.

Galveston Social Science League has promised its support to candidates favoring the single tax.

A new Connecticut law provides that no person is competent for conductors who fail to register a fine.

Until September 25 New York union cutters and trimmers will be given a half holiday on Saturday.

A Cleveland Councilman has introduced an ordinance requiring the union label on city printing.

Detroit printers will vote on whether 60 hours shall constitute a week's work in machine shops.

A sick person trying to keep up on mere stimulating foods is like any one pretending to swim while supported by a life-line. The instant the support is withdrawn down he goes.

Nearly all diseases result from a deep-seated impairment of the nutritive powers which cannot be rectified by any temporary exhilaration. The only good that any meddler can do is to increase your own natural powers of recovery and make you able to swim for yourself.

The debilitating weakness, nervousness and digestive disorder which indicates this state of mal-nutrition can only be overcome by a scientific remedy like Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery which acts directly upon the digestive and blood-making organs, and effects the nutritive transformation of food into rich, healthy blood, which carries genuine permanent vitality to every part of the system.

It is vastly more nutritious than malt-articles. It does not paralyze the nerves, but feeds them with health. It is better than cod liver oil emulsions. It is assimilated by the weakest stomach. It does not make fatty useless fat, but muscular strength and healthy nerve force. It is the only perfect invigorant for corpulent people.

Mrs. Ella Howell, of Derby, Perry Co., Ind., writes: "In the year of '94 I was taken with stomach trouble—severe dyspepsia. There was no relief in my stomach, and a weight which seemed like a rock. Everything that I ate gave me great pain. I had a bearing-down sensation as well as a sick stomach, and a ridge across my right side. In a short time I was wasted. I was treated by three of our best physicians, but got no relief. Then Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was recommended to me and I got it, and commenced the use of it. I began to see a change for the better. I was so weak I could not walk across a room without assistance. I took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and one bottle of the Pleasant Pellets. I began to improve very fast after the use of a few bottles. The Dr. Williams' physician told me I had 'dropsy' and that my disease was leading to a speedy consummation. I was quite a cough, and the home physicians gave me opium. I thank God that I secured a permanent cure."

Mrs. Ella Howell, of Derby, Perry Co., Ind., writes: "In the year of '94 I was taken with stomach trouble—severe dyspepsia. There was no relief in my stomach, and a weight which seemed like a rock. Everything that I ate gave me great pain. I had a bearing-down sensation as well as a sick stomach, and a ridge across my right side. In a short time I was wasted. I was treated by three of our best physicians, but got no relief. Then Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was recommended to me and I got it, and commenced the use of it. I began to see a change for the better. I was so weak I could not walk across a room without assistance. I took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and one bottle of the Pleasant Pellets. I began to improve very fast after the use of a few bottles. The Dr. Williams' physician told me I had 'dropsy' and that my disease was leading to a speedy consummation. I was quite a cough, and the home physicians gave me opium. I thank God that I secured a permanent cure."

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a scientific remedy like Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery which acts directly upon the digestive and blood-making organs, and effects the nutritive transformation of food into rich, healthy blood, which carries genuine permanent vitality to every part of the system.

It is vastly more nutritious than malt-articles. It does not paralyze the nerves, but feeds them with health. It is better than cod liver oil emulsions. It is assimilated by the weakest stomach. It does not make fatty useless fat, but muscular strength and healthy nerve force. It is the only perfect invigorant for corpulent people.

GROW THE CLOUDS ABOUT THE 'ADVANCE AGENT OF PROSPERITY.'

Deeper and deeper sinks the People's Feet Into Sloughs of Despondency.

Never has there been a healthier or more robust organization of the Democratic party than that which exists to-day. Two years ago it was helplessly divided. The Administration of Mr. Cleveland had disgusted nine-tenths of the Democratic party and had driven three million of voters out of its ranks. The Populist organization was but an expression of protest and condemnation by Democrats of Cleveland's subservience to Wall Street. It contained also many dreamers and enthusiasts who are always to be found ready to join any independent party movement in the hope of impressing upon it the honest but not always wise views as to the remedies for all political ills. Two million of voters abstained from voting, and of their number by far the larger portion were Democrats.

The Democratic National convention of this year was the result of an intense struggle between the money power and the masses of the party for control. All the power and the influence of the administration and all the influence of the great moneyed institutions were arrayed on the side of gold domination. This power which had heretofore proven invulnerable in the primary movement of each of the great parties, succeeded only in capturing the Northeastern States, and some of the Southern States in the West and South. To be exact out of a total vote of 930 delegates, they secured 307 votes, of which 179 were from the South, 249 from the states north of the Potomac and east of the Alleghenies, and 68 from the West. Three votes from Florida were the last that Mr. Cleveland and the bankers united could control from the South; while Wall Street and the administration were beaten down in the State and Territorial conventions of Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Kentucky, and every other State and Territory between the Mississippi River and the Pacific Ocean, except in Minnesota, South Dakota, Washington, Wyoming, and the Territory of Alaska, and of these, 9 of the 11 votes were cast with the majority. A resolution commending the honesty, economy, courage and fidelity of the Cleveland Administration was voted down by a vote of 664 to 357. Mr. Bryan's nomination was made by a vote of 652 to 116—182 not voting. He theretofore received 32 votes in excess of a two-thirds vote of the convention. The platform was adopted by a vote of 656 to 369, which was a 10-9 vote of a two-thirds vote. The action of the convention was ratified at the polls by more than six and a half millions of voters. Less than 134,000 bolting Democrats deserted the nominees of the so-called "National Democratic Convention," which nominated Messrs. Palmer and Bryan. Every Democratic voter who could be controlled by the Cleveland administration, or by the Wall street money power, went over to the support of Mr. Cleveland's greatest utterance is an assertion that the Republican party was placed in power last November "as a result of splendid Democratic patriotism."

We have grouped these figures for the convenience of those who wish to study the subject of the rehabilitation of the Democratic party. Mr. Cleveland has given us his view, which is that the regular Democracy of six and a half million of voters, together with hundreds of thousands of other Democrats, whose votes were lost to the Democratic party through the treachery of anti-Democratic waverers with firm expostulations, reminding them that Democratic convictions and Democratic conscience cannot be held aloft; and let us, at the same time, entreat them in the name of honorable political citizenship and in the memory of glorious victories won by a united Democracy, to turn from the way that leads to party defeat and destruction.

The task is not an easy one, but surely it is not hopeless. The better we appreciate its magnitude, the less will be the danger of over-estimating and misjudging the effort. The work has already been inaugurated by the creation of an organization (meaning thereby the party of the National convention) founded upon the declaration of Democratic principles, so sound, so clear and so patriotic that it will win the hearts of every true Democrat and supply an inspiration forbidding defeat. With such a beginning, and with the influence of the party of the National convention, the importance of our cause affords, we should carefully look for the approaching dawn when true

Democracy, redeemed, regenerated and cleansed, will bring us peace and national safety."

The proposition is as cool as one would have been from Judas Iscariot to the seven faithful disciples questioning them to meet in his room, after he had betrayed his Master, for the purpose of rehabilitating the Christian cause.

The rehabilitation of the Democratic party took place in Chicago in June last. The great body of the Democratic party in all the States, as well as those in the West and South, supported Mr. Bryan. In the State of New York he received 551,396 votes, while Mr. Taft received 177,497 votes, while the Palmer faction voted 1,857. Mr. Bryan's vote in this State exceeded the vote cast for Cleveland four years ago by 13,000. Mr. Bryan's vote in the United States exceeded the vote cast for Cleveland four years ago by 955,389.

It is not rehabilitation that the Democratic party is in need of. It only needs to continue faithful to Democratic principles in general, and to independent bi-partisanship in particular. Its doors must always be open to honest recruits and to return the prodigals. If it were to trail its flag of free silver coinage in the hope of securing the support of the Democrats, it would be equivalent to a rehabilitation of the party. Reforms are only desirable as additions to the main body of an army, and not as a substitute for the army itself. Every Democrat who went away from the Democratic party last November should be warmly welcomed at the polls next November. The only discipline which party unity imposes upon a bolter is to deprive him from any participation in the party councils until after he has once again voted the party ticket. We know of no instance where bolters from a Presidential ticket have sought or been permitted to participate in primary elections of the party in the year next following.

Money reform is the sign under which alone the Democratic party can conquer. All other things must wait. That cannot. Democrats who have not studied the subject, or who differ with the party have only the choice of doing with and for the Democratic party, or against it. Bolters who return to the party do not thereby rehabilitate it. They rather rehabilitate themselves. The prodigal son, upon his return to his father's house, did not bolster demand room. It was the kind father who decided to kill the fattest calf for the rejoicing feast over his return. The Democratic party will do the father's part toward all of its wayward sons who returned to the fold. No reproaches and no proscriptions will be visited upon them. But they must not expect even a partial indulgence of their conduct while in the far of land where they have recently been spending their time. There can be no compromise between the truth and a lie. Therefore there can be no compromise between the issues of bi-partisanship and contraction. Every true Democrat will uphold the Democratic cause and will be aided by all the sincere friends of bi-partisanship who have hitherto acted with the opposing parties.

The property which the Republican managers promised in the event of McKinley's election will not return. Blacker and blacker grow the deeper we dig and deeper we dig into the slough of despond. Increased taxation under the Dingley bill will not put food into the poor man's cupboard nor coal in his coal bin. Merchants will continue to fail, securities for loans will continue to shirk, foreclosures will multiply and those who have sown the wind will reap the whirlwind. The only remedy for the deadly disease of contraction is more money. The best protection against inflation is the use of the money metals, silver and gold, the production of which is limited by nature and the quantity of which has thus far never reached the amount of money used in the world's business. —Cincinnati Enquirer.

JUMPING WONDERS.

A Pony Clearing Fifty Feet and Five and One-half High Hurdles in a Single Leap.
 Most of the jumping horses of the Barrens and Bailey Show were exhibited at the great annual horse show in Madison Square Garden, New York and took first prize. One—"The Jumping Wonder," "Joan," is a chestnut pony, six years old, 42 inches. He is the winner of 14 jumping prizes; is well broken to saddle and feed in harness. He has cleared 29 feet over two 4 foot hurdles, with 90 up, and has a high record of six feet one inch. He was first shown in '92, when he was third in a class of yearlings, and won in 1901 and 1902. He was again shown in '93 at the first prize in a pony race, time 64 seconds. He won the first prize in the Madison Square Garden, New York, and second and third in the pony races, beaten by the Crow; also won third at White Plains in '94. The horse has been trained, schooled and jumped by a boy, who landed him a winner at the Madison Square Garden show in 1894. He also won a match race at Forest Park in the same year on a half mile track in 52 seconds. This is the pony that tied with Pop Over, a 16 hand horse, in a jumping class. The above record is taken from the Rider and Driver published in the city of New York. Besides this remarkable jumping, Mr. J. A. Bailey purchased the jumper to the seven faithful disciples of the "Oakland" form the property of ex Mayor Grant of New York, which has a jumping record of seven feet and two inches high. Other equally extraordinary feats by well-known and famous horses, including "Jayhawker," "Flemmer, Jr.," "Evergreen," and the famous prince, "Jupiter" and "Jockey" and others. In the grand Equestrian Tournament, in which horses and riders strain every nerve to excel in some of the most difficult and dangerous of a very wonderful character. There are 100 horses of all kinds, 40 ponies, some tiny little ones known as the "Pommes," and 70 trained ones, which perform at one time in our ring. The horses alone are valued at $100,000, and, indeed, they cost considerably more in many cases. The trained ponies and stallions form an exclusively interesting part of the great exhibition, while the running horses are the best that the country has. When one considers the show as a whole, with its enormous programme of performances, comprising circus, acrobatic, gymnastic, acrobatic, clown and other displays exhibit on of giant, dwarf, the Orises twins, and other living curiosities, the unparalleled exhibition of 24 elephants, two menagerie, a club of 1000, a pair of blue-nosed mandrill, two drives of camels, giant and pigmy animals, trained animal exhibition, its three rings, three stages, hippodrome, museum, new street parade of Columbus, the 40 horse team of bay horses, it ceases to be a wonder that it is really a unique show, and one that will be here Wednesday, May 26.

Relative To The Reunion.

The Reunion Executive Committee of Nashville has issued a circular of general information, copies of which have been forwarded to the various camps and organizations of Confederate veterans. The circular reads as follows:

Transportation—All railroad lines east of the Mississippi River have agreed on rates to the reunion of one cent per mile each way, calculated on shortest route. Lines west of the Mississippi have agreed on about that rate. These tickets will be sold with a limit of $1.00, and a further extension of ten days application to proper official at union depot in Nashville. For full information, see your railroad agent.

Board and Lodging—Meals can be procured at prices ranging from twenty cents up, and sleeping accommodations can be had at from twenty-five cents per night up to first-class hotel rates. Full information and directions will be given by Reception Committee and street car lines. Camps of the Confederacy and the veterans will do all in their power to provide entertainment for those unable to pay the expenses mentioned above.

Camping Grounds—Suitable arrangements have been made for desirable camping grounds convenient to railroad and street car lines. Camps or organizations owning or wanting tents and camp equipment, desiring to form encampments, will give notice to Maj. W. E. Foster, Chairman of Camp Committee.

Excursions—To battlefields and to Hermitage, cheap excursions will be run to the Hermitage, the home of Andrew Jackson, and to the Confederate Soldiers' Home, and to Tennessee battlefields.

All veterans are requested to organize themselves into bodies of twenty-five or less, with a chairman or commander who will, upon their arrival, be met by the Reception Committee at union depot. We would suggest that you send a representative before some day beforehand, to make all necessary arrangements.

All uniformed Confederate companies will report to the committee, as soon as possible, the number of men expected to come, and name of commanding officer.

As stated by the Commanding General, this will be the largest and most important U. C. V. reunion ever held, and all Confederate veterans are cordially invited to attend.

At the grand parade on June 24, it is confidently expected that more Confederate veterans will be in line than will ever pass in review again.

Eppworth League-Nite Conference.

The State Conference of Eppworth Leagues convenes at Nashville on June 30. The exposition has filled the city with visitors, but the Leagues have been unable to get in (at least rates) for all those who send their names in advance to John D. Sharpe, Foster Street Railroad Crossing, Nashville, and Leagues who want to be taking advantage of the fact, and are going to be there at the appointed time. This arrangement is made in some cases, and the Leagues are expected to be there at the appointed time. St. Louis requires a license on bicycles.

Gen. Lee reports that there are 1200 Americans in Cuba in need of relief from the government.

Three young ladies have already announced themselves as Democratic candidates for State Librarian before the next Legislature.

It is estimated that 3,500,000 bicycles are now in use in the United States, or one wheel to every twenty-five of the population.

The Louisville Dispatch of Sunday contained 48 columns of advertisements, including those of sixteen of the leading wholesale houses of the city.

Maj. P. P. Johnston, chairman of the State Central Committee, announces that he will retire next month and it is believed that he will become a candidate for Governor.

The Court of Appeals has decided that a raccoon bite is an accident and has a case where it proved fatal has ordered the payment of a $5,000 accident policy.

Lillian Russell, the actress, has already been divorced from three husbands and is asking the courts to give her a legal separation from her fourth husband.

It is said Gov. Ellerbe will almost certainly appoint Congressman Jno. L. McLaughlin as Senator Earle's successor in the Senate from South Carolina. Senator Earle served out only ten weeks of a six years' term.

The Courier-Journal now has a chance to call another young woman "names." The Democrats have nominated Miss Elizabeth Ford for School Superintendent in Pike county.

The special train over the L. & N. last week, bringing the DeMolay commander, broke all the records and made the trip of 188 miles in four hours and ten minutes. Sir Knight J. W. Rose was the engineer in charge.

Gov. Stephens, of Missouri, has created a great stir among the allopaths by appointing a homeopath doctor as superintendent of one of the asylums. Snarling under the criticism he is receiving, the Governor threatens to make a clean sweep of the allopaths in the state institutions.

Col. Chas. D. Jacob has announced himself as a candidate for Mayor, in Louisville, subject to the action of the Democratic primary June 22. Col. Jacob was offered the Democratic nomination last year, but declined to run as a party man. The fact that he is willing now to return to the party shows that he, like thousands of other Democrats, has lived to regret the step taken a year ago.

Circuit court will begin next Monday with many new appearances on the docket. Much of this litigation that will consume the time of the court is of a character that is by no means creditable to the litigants or the attorneys engaged. Circuit court is in session sixteen weeks every year in Hopkinsville and at least half of this time is taken up with trying and retrying alleged damage suits with no merit in them, in divorcing husbands and wives, in settling disputes between neighbors over fence lines or in making settlements between land owners and their tenants. There is too much litigation of this sort, but it makes Christian county a paradise for lawyers who take such cases.

There are upon our books a number of subscribers who, while insisting that they do not want the paper stopped, have failed to pay for several years. We have tried to be indulgent, but must now take steps to get closer to the cash system. After this issue we shall drop from our lists these delinquents and take steps to close up this unsettled business. It is purely a matter of business. While it is painful to cease to oblige our friends, we cannot run a paper in these hard times without money and all who have not made an effort to pay will be treated alike. If your paper is stopped suddenly it will be because we cannot send it any longer on credit.

The report of the board of equalization shows no change made in Christian county's assessment of $8,188,700. This is due to the fact that the property of the county is already assessed too high, in view of the depreciation in all kinds of property due to hard times. The list of counties shows that Christian stands thirteenth in wealth. Those higher are Jefferson $119,520,238, Kenton $27,865,350, Fayette $27,740,350, Campbell $18,188,234, Bourbon $12,956,942, Henderson $11,892,334, Davies $11,186,601, Mason, $9,855,592, Clark, $8,939,23, Woodford $8,722,645, Madison $8,468,060, and Warren, $8,388,285. Menifee is the poorest county in the state with only $436,591.

The Cuban belligerency resolution passed the Senate Thursday with only 14 opposing votes, as follows: Allison, Burrows, Fairbanks, Gear, Hale, Hanna, Hawley, Hoar, Spooner, Wellington, Wetmore, Wilson, Caffery and White.

The resolution is as follows. Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, that a condition of public war exists between the Government of Spain and the government proclaimed and for some time maintained by force of arms by the people of Cuba, and that the United States of America shall maintain a strict neutrality between the contending powers, according to each all the rights of belligerents in the ports and territory of the United States.

The Courier Journal has at last had its attention called to the fact that such a paper as the Dispatch is published in Louisville, and even refers to it by innuendo. Perhaps later along it may consent to mention the Democratic organ by name. Keep it up, Brother Enloe, the hide is thick but you can get through it after awhile. Just a little more ginger, please.

The burning of the courthouse at Lexington recalls the prophecy of "Mad Dauber" Smith, the negro who was hanged there last summer. He protested his innocence, and said as a proof of it the courthouse would be burned within a year. The fire was entirely accidental, so that it could not be charged to his friends, and the fulfillment of his prediction is at least a coincidence.—Owensboro Inquirer.

Series charges have been preferred at Lexington against A. T. Herd, the young attorney who is said to be slated for Chief Deputy Marshal. Herd is accused of misappropriating money to the amount of $3,500 belonging to a building and loan association and entrusted to him to pay off a mortgage.

A colored minister at Sedalia, Missouri, was fined $11.75 for forcibly kissing one of the married sisters in his church.

McKinley and his Cabinet will visit the Centennial June 12. They will go by Asheville, N. C.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; signs of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for a case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

MELINDY AND MIRTH.

Princess Bonnie's Coronation at the Opera House T. Night.

The announcement that this sparkling opera will be given to night at the Opera House by the same bright cast of amateurs which presented it last winter, will be welcomed by the public generally, as well as by the friends of the Literary Association, for whose benefit it is to be performed. The diligent drill and rehearsal given under the skillful direction of Mrs. Max Moray, give assurance of a better presentation than before of this bright opera with its wealth of song, mirth and stirring choruses, whose strains still linger in the memories of those who heard them last winter. Mrs. Moray, Misses Smith, Mercer and Loug, and Messrs. Guy and Will Starling, Fletcher, Eckles, Trice and Kelly, will repeat the solos which won the loud applause of crowded houses in the following bouquet of sentiment and song: "Love is like a Dainty Flower," by Princess Bonnie and Roy; "Dreaming of Love," by Kitty Clover, Tarpsaul and Shrimps; "Bouquet My Queen," by Roy; "Listen Well," by Annie Crab; "Fortune Overwhelms Me," by Tarpsaul; "I'm the Great Pomposo," by Pomposo; "A Sinner's Glory," by Kitty Clover and Shrimps; "I'm Just a Little Ludian, Nothing More," by Shrimps, Roy, Kitty and Bonnie, and the bewitching serenade, "Whisper Words of Love," by Kitty Clover and the Spanish students.

The young performers have given much laborious rehearsal to their work and they should be liberally encouraged by the whole community, which will enjoy the benefit of their labor. It affords us great pleasure to say that all who have been associated with Mrs. Max Moray in this noble work will heartily endorse the declaration that her time and great musical gifts have been employed on this work in such generous measures as to merit an enthusiastic salutation and recognition, at the Opera House tonight.

When Charlie Branton makes a speech. Upon the Senate floor. His colleagues rub their sleepy eyes. And straightway cease to snore. The feeble tremble in dismay. Each old tradition creaks. For there's a quaking all around. When Charlie Branton speaks. —Russellville Ledger.

The Racket Store Closed.

The Racket Store owned by J. H. Kugler was closed by attachment at 3:30 yesterday afternoon on a debt to C. B. Rouse. The claim is for $11,250 and the result was due to the fact that the agents of Mr. Rouse who is blind, are pushing for a settlement. Mr. Kugler says he has a stock of nearly $40,000 and does not owe a dollar that is due to Mr. Rouse or any one else. He will start at once for New York and says that he feels confident he will be able to adjust the matter and resume business.

The attachment was a great surprise to the public and general regret is felt on all sides.

Card to the Public.

I take this method of announcing to the public that I have opened up a full line of fresh drugs in the Regade building, next door to John C. Kitchen, where I would be pleased to have you call when in need of anything in the drug line.

I also carry stationery, toilet articles, fine cigars, tobacco, etc. Mr. Elmer Tabern, of Lafayette, an experienced pharmacist, will assist me in the prescription department. Prescriptions compounded at all hours, night or day.

Respectfully,

L. P. MILLER,

Lete of Pembroke.

Notice Not to Harbor.

Wm Perkins, my son, has left me without permission and I give notice to the public not to hire or harbor him. He is 19 years old, low and heavy set, broad complexion, and since leaving home last March has assumed the name of Anderson Russell. Last heard from near Fairview, Anderson Perkins, Fairview, Ky.

AROUND AND ABOUT

John Clemens, Jr., aged twenty years, met a horrible death while working at Russell's mill, in Casey county. Clemens was struck by a plank and knocked against a saw. His head and right leg were severed.

The sugar beet seed which the agricultural department has been distributing is practically exhausted, about 10,000 packages having been sent out to farmers in about four-fifths of the states. The seed has been distributed purely for experimental purpose.

Ex Senator and Mrs. John B. Henderson, of Mississippi, have tendered to President McKinley a country home in which he can spend the early months of the summer. The mansion is situated on the Virginia hills, two miles from Arlington.

John Spalding, the negro under arrest at Morgentown on a charge of outraging and murdering a little girl in Evansville, was released on trial, the evidence not being sufficient to hold him.

The Hopkins county grand jury by a vote of 8 yeas and 4 noes failed to indict Ed L. Hendricks for bribery last October. The four negative votes were cast by Republicans and the mail gives them a vigorous roast by name, blacklisted them in large letters.

James Grant and associates have obtained a concession from the Mexican Government for an extensive lottery and gambling house at the spring of Tinajas, Maz, over the line from San Diego, California.

DEATHS.

SHREVE.—The wife of Capt. J. E. Shreve, the popular L. & N. passenger conductor, died at her home in St. Louis last Thursday night, of consumption, aged forty years. The remains were taken to Nashville Friday for interment.

Dr. Elbert J. Vaughan, who died at Ocean Springs, Miss., on May 7, was born near this city Oct. 31, 1818. His parents were Thos. Vaughan and Susan Meacham Vaughan. He removed to Louisville at the beginning of the war and five years ago moved to Mississippi. Dr. Vaughan was married in 1850 to Miss Ann G. Wilkins, of Hopkinsville, who survives with one daughter, Miss Katie F. Vaughan and one son, Henry A. Vaughan. Many old citizens here remember Dr. Vaughan, although it has been more than 35 years since he left this city.

WILKINS.—Mrs. Elizabeth Wilkins, of Bowling Green, died Sunday night at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Herbert L. McPherson, from a stroke of apoplexy. Mrs. Wilkins had been visiting her daughter for several weeks. For a day or two she had been complaining and on Friday spoke of sending for a physician, but her son got better and could not go about. She went to bed in her usual health Saturday night and Sunday morning was found in her bed in an unconscious condition. She had been stricken with apoplexy during the night. She never rallied from the attack, but continued to grow weaker until 5:30 p. m. when she died. Mrs. Wilkins was 61 years old and was a good christian lady. She leaves several married daughters, one of whom lives in Montana. The body was taken to Bowling Green yesterday afternoon for interment.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours any sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the Kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of Kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the greatest kidney remedy of the age, will relieve the pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and sending pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get many times during the night to urinate. The mild and extraordinary effects of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists price fifty cents per one dollar bottle. For a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail, mention the HOPKINSVILLE KENTUCKIAN.

Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

Call for Christian County Bonds.

All bonds outstanding against Christian County, Kentucky, and which said bonds are of date July 1st, 1897 and due and payable July 1st, 1897, are hereby called in for payment and cancellation and all interest on same will be stopped and discontinued on and after the said date of July 1st, 1897. Holders and owners of said bonds are ordered and directed to present said bonds to the City Bank, of Hopkinsville, Ky., for payment on the said date of July 1st, 1897. Done by order of the Christian County Fiscal Court, this 10th day of April, 1897.

SENATOR EARLE DEAD.

South Carolina's New Senator Dies at His Home of Bright's Disease. Greenville, S. C., May 20.—United States Senator Joseph H. Earle died at his residence here this afternoon at 5:20 o'clock. He was 60 years old April 30 last. Soon after taking his seat in the Senate last March Senator Earle was seized with grippe, from which he did not recover. Coming home about April 1, his brother and physician, Dr. T. T. Earle, discovered that he had Bright's disease. For some time his recovery was thought probable. But three days ago his symptoms became unfavorable. At 4 o'clock this morning there was a decided change for the worse, after which he rapidly sank.

Return of Columbus.

The return of Columbus to the city of Barcelona after the first voyage of discovery, which triumphant event took place 400 years ago and was made the occasion for the grandest pageant in the history of the world, has been seized upon by the manager of the Barnum & Bailey Greatest Show on Earth as the subject for a parade daily given by that circus. It proves to be a most wonderful and stupendous spectacle of men, women, children, horses, elephants, camels, zebras, chariot, cars and floats. Columbus himself, as well as scores of other characters famous in the annals of the time, are so truthfully represented in costume in the same rich manner than in royal robes of state, on horseback surrounded with their escorts, in costly uniforms, stately and in groups, and in picturesque and charming style, and all historically correct. Preceding this portion of the pageant is the most magnificent sight imaginable, that of wondrous team of 40 fine bay horses driven by one man. Preceding the Columbus portion of the procession are rare displays of objects of wild beasts and carved golden chariots, containing the splendid zoological collection, followed by 24 elephants, the allegorical chariots, featuring nursery rhymes and children's fairy stories. The whole affair is new, grand and inspiring, and utterly unlike anything that has ever before been offered by little shows having nothing but "queer" material.

The parade will take place about 9 o'clock in the morning on Wednesday, May 29 in the following manner:

Platoon of Mounted Police.
Buglers and banner bearers.
Grand Military Band.
Stupendous Forty Horse United Team.

Noble Malechior Chimes, drawn by Ten Horses.
Lady performers and side-saddle experts.
Mounted ladies of the Hippodrome.
Gentlemen Hippodrome riders.
Two 2-horse Roman chariots.
Band chariot "Euterpe," drawn by ten horses.
Seven golden chariots containing rare wild beasts.
Triumphal chariot with queer musicians and comic heads.
Caravan of sixteen camels with Asiatic riders.
Twenty-two performing elephants.
Two elephants with Howdahs and Oriental Beaters.
Santa Claus Chariot drawn by Six Ponies.
Blue Beard Chariot, drawn by Six Zebras.
Old Woman who lived in her shoe.
Japanese Dragon Chariot with performers.
Cinderella's Fairy Coach.

THE ISLAND OF CORFU.

Its inhabitants are Lazy and Reckless the Ancient Greeks.

Corfu and Crete are said by a recent writer to be the most beautiful of the Ionian islands, and the former has been described by Bishop Wordsworth as "a sort of geographical mosaic to which all the countries of Europe have contributed colors." Corfu was never conquered by the Turks and its inhabitants are considered to bear a strong resemblance to the ancient Greeks. It has belonged at different times to the Romans, Venetians, Neapolitans, French and English. In 1863, when Prince George of Denmark was chosen by the powers for king of Greece, the Corfuotes petitioned that their island might be incorporated in the kingdom of Greece, and Great Britain consented.

The climate of the island is delightful and the scenery enchanting. In other portions of southern Europe the gray-green of the olive grove gives place to the golden yellow of the corn. In Corfu it is relieved by stretches of brilliantly green grass, pomegranate and fig, orange, lemon and banana trees grow in profusion, and palms, eucalypti and papaya flourish. There are quantities of olives, mangos and roses. The inhabitants are so lazy that they hardly attempt even the easiest cultivation, and fortunately for them the soil and climate render it almost unnecessary. A Corfu olive tree left to its own devices will frequently yield a winter crop of oil of excellent quality, and two gallons of oil each season, with no more labor involved than a simple gathering and pressing of the fallen fruit.

Corfu is the favorite place of residence of Empress Elizabeth of Austria, who has built there a winter palace which she calls the Villa Achillion. It is rumored that the name was given in reference to the one vulnerable spot ever discovered in the heart of the empress. Several million dollars have been spent in beautifying the palace and surrounding park, and an ideal spot is the result. A most beautiful and artistic monument is erected in the grounds to the memory of Prince Rudolph, the son of the empress, who, less than three months after his marriage, died from unhappiness in love by the way of suicide. When at home in Corfu Empress Elizabeth spends much time studying the Greek language and literature, with which she is very familiar.—San Francisco Chronicle.

THE MODERN GREEKS.

Politeness a Marked Trait—A People of Interesting Faces.

Civilization is latent in every man, woman and child in Greece. I never saw such an intellectual-looking people as the Greeks. They have been in the land for centuries, and in the arms of a ragged little girl of seven or eight. The impish eyes watched some tourists with the keenest intellectual curiosity and amusement. One might suppose they were the cleverest of all Europeans. One finds far more politeness in a wayside and clown-looking country café than in an English, or, indeed, a French, drawing-room. I never saw, even in France, a harder-working peasantry. They are miserably poor, but they are not so much to it in the hope that the expensive army will some day or another rid Greece of the Turks.

Are they handsome people? They are a people of interesting faces. Eyes are generally dark as those of Mr. Clemens, but the hair, which by the way, has the bilious complexion, alert mind, and ready wit of the Greek. They are a very well-made, clean-built people. But their features and expressions are so refined as to give them a high sort of beauty. A blooming girl is not uncommon. The girls' faces that most struck me were the color of yellow wax, which glazing black eyes lighted up as might a delectable flame. There was something in most of the faces that betrayed, I thought, inability to fever. All feeling for beautiful drapery is extinct. The rich women dress in frightful imitations of French finery; the poor in soddy patchwork, too thick and clumsy to admit of graceful folds. On Sundays, in new life is a show of fancy needlework, that, with necklaces of coins, has a pretty effect.—London Times.

A Great Military Engineer.

The greatest military engineer of any age was a Schinag Leonard Vaulon, born in 1633, and who died in 1707. To Vaulon is due the credit of almost all the fortresses which to the present day protect the frontiers and seacoasts of France. During his career as a military engineer he reconstructed or improved the old fortresses and built 33 new. He carried on 53 sieges, being successful in nearly every one, and took part in 140 battles.

Obituary.

Mrs. H. J. Johnson, wife of Mr. R. B. Johnson, Sr., died from congestive heart and heart disease on Monday, May 3.

Her death occasions genuine grief to all who knew her. Her sweet disposition, her thoughtfulness, her kindness and unselfishness endeared her to all who knew her.

She was born near Lebanon, Tenn. In 1832. Early in life she united with the Baptist church and lived a consistent member until her death. At the age of 21 years she was married to Mr. Jas. E. Newman, of Muhlenberg county, Ky. Seven children were the result of this union, five of whom survive her. After living a widow seven years she was united in marriage to Mr. R. B. Johnson, of Ohio county, Ky. Her husband and one child are left to mourn her loss.

She was a devout Christian, a kind and loving life and mother. For several months she had been feeble and at times suffered greatly but bore it with Christian fortitude and often expressed a willingness to leave her Savior. She died with her little body lying beside her where she had been lying. There is a vacant place in our hearts that never can be filled. But we know that she is resting safely in the arms of Jesus. Therefore we do not mourn as those who have no hope, but while we sorrow we also rejoice, as she did, to meet our Savior and all our loved ones who have gone before, yet meet where parting will be no more.

We loved her, we we loved her, but she is loved by her soul.

And I have sweetly called her.

To your shining house.

The golden gates were open.

A gentle voice called me.

BELL'S OF ALL COUNTRIES.

Tokens of Joy and Sorrow—Are Unpopular in Orient.

In this country, says the London Daily Mail, bells are and always have been intimately associated with national as well as individual joy and sorrow. When a great victory is won the bells cheer forth the glad tidings from a thousand steeples, while they perform a like office, though, of course, in a different key, in case of national disaster. Bells in England, however, have lost the welcome, as in some other countries, hours with ages of superstition.

But Spain has a bell that is its prophet. It is its omen, oracle and guide. This bell, the famous Alhambra, has rung for centuries in the Alhambra castle, keeping watch over the nation.

It is the most celebrated bell in Europe. Its fame rests not so much on its notes, though they are high-pitched, soft and clear, nor upon its size, for there are other bells in Spain much larger, but upon its history.

The Villala is a Spanish bell that for years has foretold any impending trouble to the nation. When the father of the little Alfonso died the Villala began tolling in the night and till mid-morning tolling. In the ten years of the reign of the late Alfonso the Villala has rung for the first time. And when great fires have struck the castle and sickness or insurrection threatened the throne, the Villala has lifted up its voice.

The Villala has tolled again, and only a fortnight ago. It was one of the most striking events of the year, but they ran to tell the direful tidings. Did it mean more disaster in Cuba? Was the war to drain the royal veins beyond penny to debt? The Villala would not tell, but it sent out its warning note.

Russia is in a coronation bell, the largest in the world, and weighing 250,000 pounds.

It hangs in the Kremlin, and is the emperor's bell, being rung only in honor of him. At the coronation it pealed forth as the emperor entered the church, and its voice announced the conclusion of the ceremony to the whole of Russia. The coronation bell is swung by a bell-ringer blessed by the emperor as the head of the church. The bell-ringer does no other work, and is always on duty to ring the bell at any important event in the imperial family.

He is pensioned, and is ever polishing up the bell in case of need. He rings the bell when his majesty goes to church and in case of the death of a Russian monarch. The Kremlin bell tolls constantly at seven strikes the death and time of the funeral.

As is well known, to Russia belongs the largest unring bell in the world. This bell now occupies a building in the Kremlin. It was cast two centuries ago, but was found too heavy to ring, and was left to rot. The Russian monarchs, one after another, tried to have it lifted, and dozens of lives were sacrificed in the shifting pit of sand. Finally fate intervened. A raging fire broke out and heated the bell in its pit. A quantity of cold water flowed around it, and the great piece of a door, was broken open. The Russian czar immediately ordered it to be lifted on a pedestal and set within the Kremlin, where it is sometimes used as a temple. Its weight is two feet thick and it is 25 feet high.

The bells of Notre Dame in Paris are the largest bells of sweetness in the world. One of them weighs 35, and set within the Kremlin, where it is 600 pounds. The maker who cast it was never allowed the secret of its low, sweet tone.

As a nation the Japanese have the largest bells, but the crudest. So unskillful are they that many of them will not ring, and so they are obliterated from the list of bells. The best bells made, even if cast correctly, have too small hammers. Or they are made to sound like tin, and the hammers does not strike roundly. One of these, the "Little Giant," has never been weighed. It is said to weigh comparatively little, being of some 100 pounds, but it is 20 feet across. It is used to announce births or deaths in the royal family. Its clapper is a small, elongated affair that strikes the bell with a double sound, and the "Little Giant" is easily recognized when heard.

Thou of Notre Dame in Montreal is the largest bell in America, but not the sweetest. This attribute is claimed by the biggest bell of Trinity's chime in New York, which is surpassing in delicacy and penetrating. The hammers used in it flat. The hammers of Trinity, Greece, Italy and Egypt have not many faults. Bells are not in good repute there, from the fact that criminals wear them around the neck and lepers are strung with them. In the temples the high priests decorate their robes with small jingling bells, and this is another reason why bells cannot become common. In Turkey they are conspicuously unpopular—indeed, that country is the only one that positively forbids the ringing of the New Year by means of bells.

ANIMAL DIET.

Creates Living on But One Kind of Food Are Source.

Horses, though trained to eat hay and oats, now eat cooked food, a mixture of hay, bran, vegetables, etc., being stored and served up in most of the great London stables; and the only domestic creature whose tendency to enlarge its food-range is discouraged is the pig, not because it is bad for the animal, but because we are by limiting its choice of food to extend our own. For our own purposes we have induced the dog to become largely a vegetable feeder, greatly to the advantage of its health in confinement, and by the substitution of the uniform "dog biscuit" for table scraps of meat have given him a mixture of meat and dates, which is as agreeable to crack as a bone. Among the more highly organized creatures "single-food" animals are scarce and growing scarcer. There is evidence that the mute swan once fed almost entirely on sub-aquatic grasses. At Abbotsbury, when the ice destroyed the grass growing at the bottom of the lagoon, the half-wild swans starved to touch any other food, and starved in hundreds. Now they have learned to eat grain just as the Thames swans have learned to eat bread and the grain which falls from barges. Probably the Abbotsbury swans were the last of their species in England which were "single-food" animals, and with their extinction the extension of the range of diet is completed.

Remembered almost entirely on mosses and fish. It is still matter for doubt whether they can be acclimated in this country, though evidence is being made to the contrary. If they cannot, an extension of the species, even though in domestication, will be prevented by their limited food range. The moss feeds entirely on the bark and twigs of trees. But this is partly due to the height of its foraging and the shortness of its neck, which makes it almost impossible for it to graze. When fed from a manger the moss takes readily to ordinary cattle food. Seals were once considered to live wholly on fish. The supply is so varied as well as abundant and the seals so active, that it might be thought that there was little to induce them to seek a change. Yet Mr. Trevor-Battye when on Kolguev watched a seal catching ducks, with such persistence and success that there can be little doubt that the seal has extended its dietary from fish to fowl. Instances of the converse are the great fishing owls, which, being provided with an equipment equally suited for killing birds and small animals, are by preference catchers of fish. Instances of carnivores developing a concurrent taste for vegetable food are uncommon. The most curious instance the writer has known was that of a Scotch deerhound, which was so fond of peaches that it would stand on its hind legs to pick them up. It could not reach when standing on all fours. The Australian colonies present the three most striking instances of the tendency of flesh diet. The often-quoted case of the large New Zealand parrot which took to sheep killing is the most striking. But the feral pigs of the colony are said to be very destructive to young lambs, and in 1833 in Australia throughout a large district the sheep became not only carnivorous but cannibal. The sheep of the Murumbidgee country became addicted to eating a self-impregnated earth found on the runs, and after some time became thin and emaciated. They then attacked the new-born lambs, and devoured such numbers that in one flock only 400 were left out of 1,200. Some of the squatters applied for leave from the government to move to other runs not yet taken up. Even the shepherds were attacked by the sheep when rescuing the lambs, and their clothes bitten. This morbid derangement of the instincts of the sheep, which was noted on many runs in the district, was never satisfactorily accounted for, but was generally attributed to the eating of the salt-impregnated earth. Of English birds, one generally regarded as feeding entirely on vegetable and grain, occasionally varies its diet by animal food. This is the tame pigeon, which has been noticed after rain to eat earth worms on lawns as eagerly as a thrush. This addition to its usual food is probably due to the absence in the diet generally of the seeds of the birds of some element which pigeons find in the mixed seeds and leaves which they eat when wild.—London Spectator.

Mr. D. P. Davis, a prominent Liverpool and merchant of Gosport, Va., writes to the subject of rheumatism: "I take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, as I know from personal experience that it will do all that is claimed for it. A year ago this spring my brother was laid up in bed with inflammatory rheumatism and suffered intensely. The first application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm eased the pain and the use of one bottle completely cured him. For sale by R. C. Hardwick, druggist."

Twenty-eight large tobacco factories use the union label.

Eye waters or salves containing sugar of lead are dangerous. Sometimes sore eyes are cured with them—lead poison does not always result. Thous and of persons have lost their eyes as a result of the use of such preparations. Southland's Eagle Eye Salve contains no lead and cannot injure the eyes of a babe.

Your Intelligence.

Your intelligence is questioned by the druggist who tries to influence you to let him bottle anything for you when you ask for Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. No druggist can put this up for you—he cannot put up anything like it—it is not to be had in bulk—it is to be had only in 25c, 50c and $1 bottles. There is nothing just as good as Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. Avoid those substitutes with similar sounding names. When you buy Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey see that the bottle has never been opened and that it bears the picture and testimony of "Good Old Grandmother's," and the name of the E. E. ### FRENCH RESTAURANT LIFE.

A Phase of it Experienced by American Tourists.

The restaurant life of Paris is as distinctive as its cosmopolitan as the club life of London. The two modes of living are totally different, however, and mark elementary divergencies of national character and temperament. The Frenchman is a gourmet; the Englishman is a gourmand. The Frenchman likes the open air, but he wants his open air to be larded in and girt about against intrusion. That which delights the French—the glitter, the chatter, the red and noisy and flow of the boulevards—offends the Englishman.

Yet the better restaurants of Paris do not get their profits off their French patrons. It is the American who is relied on to bring up the average and convert a loss into a gain, and for the American, therefore, the trap is set and the trigger adjusted. He may swear and squirm and amuse the onlookers by his futile attempts in ever-evoked French to make his meaning plain, but to no avail. He will have to pay the bill. The well-rested American has discovered a device for taking the luckless American completely captive which deserves the name of great.

Like everything great, it is simple. No price is affixed to the several dishes upon the bill of fare. Thus the stranger is left entirely in the dark. He is at the mercy of the lady, accountant and the lead waiter. There is no fixed standard of value. There is no check upon enterprising rapacity. You order your dinner blindfolded, and when "la note" is brought you have no recourse. The garcons stand around and grin. The maitre de cuisine is dignity a little tempered by majesty. You know you are being swindled. You know that the monsieur under who has had more dishes than you, and a better served, has been charged some 50 per cent less, but what can you do? You can do nothing. You can simply discharge. If you ask the price in advance you commit a dreadful solecism. "What are the prices about prices?" Prices were made for the cannibal. If a million wants a cheap dinner he goes to Duval. The Cafe Voisin exists for "gentlemen," not for persons who need to economize.

The Cafe Anglais does not desire cheap custom. It prides itself on being "tres cher." The poor American does not see it at all, but his vanity being touched as well as his pocket, he goes away with an abridgement of the basis in his grumble. He is a wiser, but a poorer man.—N. Y. Advertiser.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper, forthright, gentle effort, it is not difficult to see that the remedy is not far from the right. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Side of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact that it is therefore so important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one physician, but if it is a laxative, one should have the best, and the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

Bicyclists may find comfort in the fact that the circus has given them recognition. As a vehicle the bicycle is especially favored on the show ground. The Barnum & Bailey management has this season set up a tent near the main entrance to the big show which is the wheelman's own. Here he may check his bike, and leave it in safety, while he gazes at the wonders of menagerie and ring.

Mr. L. P. Miller, the new druggist in the warehouse block, arrived from Penbrooke last week and is now open for business in his handsome new quarters. Dr. Miller is a well known and very popular young business man, who has done business at Penbrooke for several years. Mr. B. H. Alderson, who was with him at this date, accompanies him to this city.

O. D. Thompson's residence on Water street, a frame cottage owned by Bailey Waller, caught on fire Saturday about 10 o'clock from burning soil falling on the roof. The alarm was sounded, but the fire was soon put out and the department, which turned out promptly, found the danger over. Loss very slight.

A negro boy named Ed Williams has caught the fever of litigation just now raging in Hopkinsville and has brought suit for $2,000 against the L. & N. Railroad. He claims that he attempted to cross the platform of a car and was held on the platform by an employe until the train began to move and was then shoved off and killed $2,000 worth.

Edwin Auebaugh, a Kelly farmer, was tried on a writ of lunacy Friday and ordered sent to the asylum. His brother Harry Auebaugh, was sent to the same institution a few weeks ago. Geo. C. McFarland, of this city, was also adjudged of unsound mind and sent to the asylum for treatment.

The Misses Phelps are having some improvements made on their residence at 801 South Main Street. A long veranda is being built in front, which will add much to the appearance of the house, which is one of the most substantial brick dwelling houses in the city.

The condition of Henry Thompson, the colored tramp who jumped from an L. & N. freight train a few days ago and was badly injured, is improving and it is now thought that he will be able to leave for his home in Engleview, Tenn., this week.

J. T. Hall, city scavenger can be reached by telephone at any time Call No. 32.

Tom Cools and Henry Callahan fought over a girl at Hyden and Callahan was killed.

Misses Tony Ware, Lett, Fairleigh, Willie Rust and Juliette Settle have returned from Mrs. J. F. Clark's, near Gracey, where they enjoyed a "house party" for a week or ten days. Of course they had a pleasant time, as Mrs. Clark is a noted entertainer and thoroughly understands the art of making her guests enjoy themselves.

Dr. Manning Brown and Miss Elizabeth Long were married late Thursday afternoon, as per announcement in Tuesday's Kentuckian. The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. H. D. Smith, at the bride's home on South Virginia Street. They left at once for a short visit to the groom's parents in Nashville, after which they will return and take board at Mr. Geo. C. Long's, the bride's father.

Miss Elizabeth Owen, of Hopkinsville, Ky., and Dr. G. N. Murphy, of Bowling Green, Ky., were married yesterday morning at the residence of Dr. Gross Alexander, on the Vanderbilt campus. The marriage was very quiet, only a few friends being present. The ceremony was performed very impressively by Dr. Alexander. After which the happy couple visited the Centennial. The bride and groom left on the night train for Bowling Green, their future home.—Nashville Sun May 20.

The Democrats of the Sixth Ward are already beginning to look around for a suitable man to represent them in the next council. Among those most frequently spoken of are Messrs. W. E. Ragdale, J. T. Wall, H. D. Wallace, M. F. Crenshaw and Geo. W. Collins. Any one of them would make the ward an acceptable representative.

A reunion of the Barker family was held Saturday at the residence of Mr. Charles T. Barker, near Kenndy. Mr. Barker has forty eight lineal descendants, children and grandchildren, and most of them were on hand.
